

Goals of Pre-Workshop Materials and Workshop:

- To provide a video and a 3 page reading that explains food, race, and what it means to be racially equitable in the food system
- To discuss personal experiences and themes related to the pre-workshop materials
- To brainstorm what the Food Policy Council can do to create a more racially equitable food system

1. Interactive Reflection of Story Starter (20 minutes)

- Reading: Good For Families, Communities, and the Economies
- Video: Food + Justice = Democracy

Guiding Questions:

- What are your initial thoughts or reactions?
 - Each person responds with a word or phrase
 - After each person has shared, open it up to larger discussion
- What are your own experiences or organizations (not specifically the FPC) related to this to this the video and reading?
- How have you responded?

2. Brainstorm: What would an equitable Food System look like? (10 minutes)

- Breakout into small groups (divided by committees: Steering, Governance, Finance, Fundraising, Policy, Outreach and Communication and Data, Evaluation and Research)
- Have each group brainstorm three ways that their committees work would use a racial equity lens and bring an equitable food system.

3. Share (10 minutes)

- Have the council come back together to share what each committee has come up with

4. Closing (10 minutes)

- Discussing next steps for equity work and discussions for the council
